

I ♥ Dads Month

June 2007

brought to you by the RestRock Restaurant Group: Tortilla Marissa's, and Windsor's Main Street Grill

It's Dads Month and I Couldn't Be More Proud

Wow! June is already here. School is out, at least in this area. Everyone has their sprinkler systems fired up, and the sound of lawnmowers is ever present once again.

It's the time of year when it seems all of nature has stopped hesitating and made the decision to start growing at full speed.

We seem to follow the same pattern as we all become more active in the warmer weather and longer daylight hours.

I bet you are probably wondering, though, what I am so proud of. I'm getting to that. There are actually a number of reasons.

At the top of the list I have to say that what I'm most proud of is being called Dad.

At the top of the list, what I'm most proud of - is being called "Dad"

Of course, I have to give all the credit to my two great kids and my wonderful wife for making me look so good. What a blessing to have them as my family.

Now understand, my kids are not little children anymore. In fact, they have become really special adults. And that's why I am so proud to have them call me "Dad".

Marissa just turned 23 and she is one of the most pleasant, outgoing, personable, caring people you could meet. Starbuck's is lucky to have her as part of their management team. I don't know how I let her get away.

My son, Nate, graduated from CSU a few years ago, and has worked for the Colorado Eagles and then at the Central Hockey League headquarters. The first week of this month we'll be traveling to Athens, Ohio to see him receive his masters degree in sports administration from Ohio University.

Connie has been amazing everyone with her marathon performances this year. She just won the women's grand masters division of the Colorado Marathon last month and will be running the Steamboat marathon (her 5th marathon since October) the middle of this month.

I'm sitting on the sidelines right now with a broken collarbone after a spill while out cycling, and I have to tell you, I am very proud to have such great a management team and staff at both Tortilla Marissa's and Windsor's Main Street Grill. I truly thank them for keeping things running so smoothly while I'm "on the bench".

We have lots of fun and interesting things in store for you in the restaurants this month, most importantly, our Father's Day specials.

So take advantage of these great deals and remember to recognize the special DAD in your life this month.

Until next month...

Party On, Doug

The Best Way to Say “I Love You, DAD!”

DAD deserves something special for Dad’s Month.

Haven’t you always gone to DAD whenever something needed fixing?

Hasn’t he always been the first one to say, “I’ll take care of it for you” in your time of need?

Who is the person you’ve always turn to for help?
There’s only one answer. It’s DAD!

DAD deserves to be recognized for all the times
he’s “made things work out” at your house.
You need to find him something special,
a gift that he just can’t live without.

We have just the thing!
Your DAD will absolutely light up at the sight of the one item that absolutely fixes everything.
“What could that possibly be?” you ask.

Well, Duct Tape, of course!
That’s right, a brand new roll of DUCT Tape!

We’re celebrating
DAD’S MONTH
at Tortilla Marissa’s and Windsor’s Main Street Grill
by giving Dad a FREE roll of Duct tape.

Don’t miss out on this sure-fire way to show DAD
how much you really care.

Remember your DAD by going to Tortilla
Marissa’s or the Main Street Grill during Father’s Month and show him how much he means to you.

After all, what says “I Love You, DAD” more than a roll of Duct Tape?

Bring the certificate in During DAD’S MONTH (June 2007)
for Dad to receive his free roll of Duct tape.

But don’t wait too long.
We bought up all the duct tape we could find, and we only have 200 rolls to give away.
Once they are gone, they’re all gone.

7 Things You’ll Never Hear Dad Say

1. Darn it ... I’m lost. Can you believe that? I’ll just stop here and ask directions.
  2. Sweetie, now that you’ve turned 13, I think you should be allowed to do whatever you want.
  3. I really like the attitudes of your friends. They seem angry and disrespectful and I see the value in that.
  4. I just want you to have my credit card and a new car so that you can have a great time. No curfew. Go ahead, go wild!
  5. While your mother and I are away for the weekend, I thought you might want to have a party. Here’s the key to the liquor cabinet.
  6. I think a tattoo of the devil would look great on you. Let’s go down to the parlor—I’m paying.
  7. You don’t need to work for your spending money. Shoot, I make enough. How much do you need?

10 Things to Say That Make People Feel Good.

People who feel good will about themselves and their jobs will contribute at high levels. If they work for you, with you, or near you they will propel you in front of them. Saying nice things to people makes them feel good. But you must be absolutely sincere. Practice and remember to say the following:

- 1) Please.
- 2) Thank-you.
- 3) You remember _____ in our Accounts Payable Dept. (an introduction of someone to a superior)
- 4) That was a first class job you did.
- 5) I appreciate your effort.
- 6) I hear nothing but good words about you.
- 7) I am glad you are on the team.
- 8) I need your help.
- 9) You certainly earned and deserve this.
- 10) Congratulations.
