

WHATS COOKING November 2007

brought to you by the RestRock Restaurant Group: Tortilla Marissa's, and Windsor's Main Street Grill

It's the Season of Gratitude !

This month being the month of thanksgiving, it is a time for reflection. November is the season of gratitude, of gift giving and extending kindnesses. Small, heartfelt tokens of affection are shared with family members and friends, business associates and employees, youngsters and adults.

But, you may ask, what good does all this goodwill do for the giver? Why is it better to give than to receive?

Napoleon Hill once said that the aroma of the flowers stays on the hands of the giver. Simply put, this means that the gift and the giver are never truly separated. In giving we also receive. The gift always comes full circle.

Why not recite a prayer at this year's Thanksgiving Dinner? Afterwards, allow each of your guests to recall what they are grateful for, and then remind everyone that everything we have in this life is a gift. May we always possess the wisdom to appreciate the wonderful gifts bestowed upon us in our lifetimes.

Life is our greatest gift and well worth remembering as we gather together to give thanks.

Peace and Prosperity to you and yours this month of thanksgiving.

Party On, Doug

"The U.N has evidence of global warming. And right now they are working hard, around the clock, to do nothing about it."

Getting Fired Can Be Good For You

Sometimes it's hard to see beyond events or experiences that seem clearly negative in our lives.

Case in point: J.K. Rowling, author of the phenomenally popular Harry Potter series of children's books, was once fired from a secretarial job for writing creative stories on her computer, according to Kate Lorenz ("Getting fired can be a good thing," CNN.com and CareerBuilder.com).

Rowling rallied by using her severance pay to beat rejection and launch her first Harry Potter book. Today, she's a billionaire. A great lesson in taking things in stride and moving on.

Thanks for All Your Great Comments

"I just wanted to say that everytime I've come to your restaurant, everything is always great... the food and the people... I came in yesterday and Howard was amazing... I've never had such good service anywhere!! He helped me make my sons birthday very special and that really meant a lot to me! Please tell him thank you and let him know what a great job he does!! "
